

Mark was a farmer. On his farm he had lots of sheep and cows. The best animal was his horse.

She was called Scarlet. She was a fantastic horse. She could gallop and jump very high. Mark shouts: "Scarlet! Here girl!" and she zoomed to him.

One day, Scarlet did not run to him. Mark looked for her. She was not in the barn. She was not in the yard. She was not to be seen.

Where was she?

He looked in the grass. He looked by the sheep and the cows.

He had a fright. "Where is my girl?" he said. "Did she get out of the farm and on to the street?"

Next to the haystack he saw a hoof. Then he saw three more. Scarlet was playing a trick on him.

"That is not fair, Scarlet," said Mark. He patted her back.

Scarlet galloped back to the farm.

Mark jumped for joy.
